

1978

Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Stephen Hammer	I went to KCS, Wimbledon and have since been working in the pensions industry.	I currently work for LafargeHolcim as part of the team running our multi billion pound UK pension scheme.
Antony Taylor	I left Homefield go to Epsom College and then went on to do a BA (Hons) in Spanish and French. I went on to be Head of French at Lingfield College, Surrey and Head of Languages at Truro High, Cornwall	I currently do on line language tutoring and divide my life between Cornwall and Spain