Name	What I did after Leaving Homefield Preparatory School	What I am doing now
Jonty Foley	After going through every year at Homefield, I went to Whitgift School.	Gave up working at the beginning of 2020, my last job being five years with a tech start up company at the beginning of 2020 to go travelling. Which I hope to start doing soon.
Guy Holloway	After Homefield, I was at KCS (1980-85), then at Peterhouse, Cambridge (1986-89), where I read English. I lived abroad for many years, worked in PR, then fell into teaching.	Today I am the co-founder and head of an all-through (0-18) independent school
